THE TREND OF THINGS

How many know that two universities for the Philippines are projected, both located in Manila and both to serve the entire archipelago? One has the United States government behind it, as repre-sented in the school system of the Philippines, and to its presidency the Rev. Dr. Murray Bartlett has just been appointed. The other is being formed by Protestant missionary societies having work there, Presbyterians and dists taking the lead. The Episcopal Church, through its bishop there, the there, Presbyterians and Metho-Church, through its bishop there, the RL Rev. Dr. Charles H. Dr. Bartlett, was dean of the Episcopal Cathedral in Manila, and has resigned to accept the educational position. He is a native of New York, a graduate of Harvard University, was at one time on the staff of tirace Church. New York, and left the rectorability of St. Paul's Church, Rochester, to go to Manila. The second university, name not yet selected, is part of a general plan to establish great Christian universities in India, China. Japan, and the Philippines, to crown the Christian educational systems planted there by European and American influence in those countries, and lacked by the whole Protestant missionary power of the world.
